

(ISCEBS) Hall of Fame
AWARD

The International Society has a rich history of dedicated members supporting the mission and vision of the CEBS® program, the International Society and the local chapter network.

This honor recognizes CEBS graduates who have shared their time and talents to further the education and professional expertise of those working in the employee benefits field.

The following criteria will be considered in selecting a candidate for the Hall of Fame:

- Service to the local benefits community through chapter volunteerism
- Leadership in the International Society, International Foundation and/or local chapters
- Championing and mentoring for the CEBS program
- Industry and civic contributions

The individual must have:

- Spent a significant part of his or her career in the benefits industry
- Been active in the leadership of the International Society for five or more years.

Nominations are accepted through March 30.

- Individuals may be nominated by Society members, colleagues or a family member.
- Self-nominations will not be accepted.
- Nominations previously submitted but not accepted will be considered for the 2019 award.

The Governing Council will review the nominees and determine this year's recipient no later than June 30, with recognition at the annual Symposium.
