“Integrated Wellbeing - Bringing It All Together - An Employer Panel”

Speakers:

*Jeanine Miakotina, Wellbeing Program Manager - Allina Health

Employers are moving away from traditional "wellness" programs in favor of broader "wellbeing" strategies aimed at integrating physical, emotional social and financial wellbeing into a comprehensive solution.

This session will look at various approaches to integrating wellbeing from two employers and how they have begun this journey. Participants will learn from these employers valuable takeaways such as:

- * Defining the Problem - How to begin the process of determining your current wellbeing status
- * Developing a Strategy - How to move from the current state to a desired state
- * Developing a Comprehensive Team - How to integrate various stakeholders and vendor solutions
- * Lessons Learned - Pitfalls to Avoid - What does the future of wellbeing look like for each organization?
 - * And more!
