

INTERNATIONAL SOCIETY OF CERTIFIED EMPLOYEE BENEFIT SPECIALISTS

Chapter Program Announcement

Contemporary Benefits Issues 2010

Please join the Northeast Ohio Chapter for our annual update on current welfare benefit and retirement plan issues

Learn what you need to manage the complex environment of welfare benefits plans and retirement programs. The Northeast Ohio Chapter of the International Society of Certified Employee Benefits Specialists has the information, tools and industry professionals who can help you effectively manage your programs. This year's topics are relevant to today's employee benefits environment and the sessions are led by local and national thought leaders on health care, retirement programs and benefit cost control.

This year's topics include:

- Health Economics: Why Supply and Demand is Important to You
- Hospital Finance 101: Key Factors Shaping Hospitals' Financial Health
- Employee Benefits and Workforce Change: Savvy Benefits Management in an Era of Mergers, Acquisitions, and Downsizing
- Retirement Plans: Helping Participants Make Better Investment Decisions in the Current Environment
- Speaking Their Language: Benefits Communications that Connect with Your Employees
- Mercer National Survey of Employer-Sponsored Health Plans: Data that Matters to You

These sessions have been approved for 6 Continuing Education credit hours with the Ohio Department of Insurance and 6 credit hours with the HR Certification Institute.

After, we will be hosting a cocktail reception for all participants.
