

Highlights From Mercer's 2009 National Survey of Employer-Sponsored Health Plans

Employers found ways to slow health benefit cost growth in 2009's tough business environment—how did they do it?

You will find out the facts and trends that only the largest scientific annual survey of close to 3,000 employers on the topic of employer-sponsored health plans can reveal.

At this meeting, we will present detailed national and Southern California findings that you can use to benchmark your own health and welfare benefits program.

Who should attend?

- Benefit managers
- Financial officer
- Human resource manager
- Individuals with welfare or benefit plan responsibilities
- Risk managers
