How Do You Get Employees to Pay Attention?

How HR can cut through the noise to more effectively manage change and communicate the employee value proposition

Wednesday, April 18, 2018

11:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

Il Fornaio Italian Restaurant

8000 E. Belleview Avenue, Suite G-10

Greenwood Village, CO

SPEAKER: Mark Solie

Mark Solie is a Change and Communications Principal in Mercer's Phoenix office. For more than 25 years, he's been helping clients improve employee engagement through the development and implementation of organizational effectiveness and employee communication strategies and programs.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW:

Look at Me! Look at Me! Look at Me! Every organization has a mission to sell and a story to tell. But in today's "What's in it for me" culture, attracting, retaining and engaging top talent can be challenging. Mark's presentation will highlight why it's difficult to break through the noise to reach today's workforce. And he'll share key actions you and your organization can leverage to improve employee engagement, Build awareness about your total rewards, and develop a better informed workforce.

COST:

ISCEBS Colorado Chapter Members: $35
