DFW ISCEBS Luncheon What's the Fuss from the DOL About Missing Participants November 8, 2018

Please join the DFW chapter of ISCEBS on Thursday, November 8th for "What's the Fuss from the DOL About Missing Participants" at Maggiano's.

Our clients are asking what they need to do to avoid trouble with the DOL and IRS on missing and unresponsive participants. Our speaker, Jim Griffin, will address this question by looking at who might be a missing participant and what an employer should do to determine whether they have any missing participants. He will also discuss actions that may be taken by the IRS, DOL and PBGC. Congressional action may be next. In all of this, Jim will provide practical guidance on what an employer should do to discharge its obligations under ERISA.

SPEAKER:

Jim Griffin
Partner
Scheef & Stone, LLP

Jim has practiced for more than 30 years and primarily represents employers and committees on employee benefits and executive compensation matters. He enjoys trying to make sense out of what the IRS and DOL seem to be telling employers and to translate those messages in an understandable and practical way. He is a frequent speaker on a variety of employee benefits topics. He also posts useful updates on his LinkedIn page and he invites you to connect with him on LinkedIn. He is a graduate of the SMU Dedman School of Law. He is married to Sheila and serves on several nonprofit boards in Dallas.
