

Twin Cities Chapter of ISCEBS January 2019 Educational Luncheon

“New Year, New Day – Current State of the ACA”

Speakers:

Allison Manno – Health e(fx), EVP – Compliance
Kathi Wright – Gray Plant Mooty, Principal – Employee Benefits and Executive Compensation Chair; Culture, Diversity & Inclusion Committee Chair

The ACA requires employers to provide enhanced oversight and monitoring of their health plan offerings. While initiatives to abolish the law have been introduced and substantial modification of many of its requirements have occurred, most of the Employer requirements under the ACA are still intact and employers need to remain in compliance. Please join us for our initial luncheon of 2019 as our ACA experts discuss topics including the following:

- Recent legislative changes
- Litigation challenges, particularly the Texas court case and California appeal
 - Activity at the State level
 - EEOC and wellness
- The 116th Congress – What should we expect? What is the impact of the GOP focus on reducing cost rather than on insurance coverage?
 - 2018 reporting

Our experts will be prepared to provide up-to-the-minute commentary on any new developments.
