This Affordable Care Act is the gift that keeps on giving. Please join us for this summary of the current state of the ACA, and where it may be headed, including:

- Court decision striking down the ACA, pending appeal.
- Contraceptive-related litigation: Courts enjoin final regulations.
- Individual mandate penalty is now $0: Impact for plan sponsors; reaction from the states.
- DOL offers to reinvigorate premium payment HRAs.
- IRS enforcement of the employer mandate grinds on.

SPEAKER:

Edward Fensholt, J.D.
Senior Vice President, Director of Compliance Services
Lockton

Ed has more than 30 years of experience as an attorney and more than 25 years concentrating in the area of ERISA and other aspects of employee benefits law. He has extensive experience regarding compliance issues under the Affordable Care Act, the Tax Code, and ERISA with respect to health and other fringe benefit plans; employee benefits issues in mergers and acquisitions; multiple employer welfare arrangements; and a variety of other employee benefits-related matters.

Prior to joining Lockton, Ed established and led the ERISA Compliance practice at Palmer & Cay and was a managing principal with DeFrain Mayer, an employee benefits consulting firm in Overland Park, Kansas. From 1990 to 1998, Ed practiced law with the employee benefits group of Spencer Fane Britt & Browne, a large Kansas City law firm. Ed became a partner in the firm in 1996.

Ed received his bachelor's degree in journalism from the University of Kansas, earning membership in the Kappa Tau Alpha (journalism) and Phi Alpha Theta (history) academic honor societies. He received his law degree from the University of Kansas School of Law, earning membership in the Order of the Coif and the Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi. He served in the U.S. Army's Judge Advocate General's Corps as a trial attorney and administrative law specialist with the 101st Airborne Division from 1984 to 1988 and with the 1st Infantry Division during the 1991 Persian Gulf War.

Ed is a member of various bar associations and is a frequent lecturer and author on employee benefits matters.
