WEBINAR: Retirement Policy Legislative Update

Due to the COVID-19 the March 19th program has been changed to a Webinar and will held on Tuesday, March 31st at 10:00 am.

Have you had enough discussions about the SECURE Act? Are you ready to talk about something else? We thought so. Please join the Capital Chapter ISCEBS for a round table discussion with Chantel Sheaks, Executive Director of Retirement Policy for the U.S. Chamber of Commerce. Sheaks will discuss retirement plan legislation, regulations and litigation to keep an eye on in 2020. Areas of focus will include Congress’s appetite to take on retirement legislation and DOL’s ability to focus on issues other than SECURE. Topics include:

- What other legislative proposals are out there and will any move in the election year?
- Will 2020 be the year of multi-employer reform?
- Will the DOL issue guidance on missing participants?
- Is the IRS close to student loan/retirement plan regulations?
- How have fiduciary roles changed for plan sponsors in the wake of recent legislation, regulations and litigation?
- Is retirement plan data a plan asset?
- What are the hot topics in ERISA litigation?

DATE: Tuesday, March 31, 2020
TIME: 10:00 -11:00 am - Presentation
LOCATION: Your Desk
COST: $10
REGISTRATION: Please click here to register. (Webinar instructions will be emailed. If you have not received webinar instructions by March 27th, please contact the chapter at capitalchapteriscebs@gmail.com so the instructions can be resent.)

This program qualifies for one (1) CEBS Compliance credit. Visit www.cebs.org/compliance for more information.

Cancellation Policy: Full refund if requested within 48 hours' notice of the event.

SPEAKER

Chantel Sheaks
Executive Director, Retirement Policy
United States Chamber of Commerce
Washington, DC

Chantel develops, promotes and publicizes the Chamber’s policy on retirement plans, nonqualified deferred compensation and Social Security. In addition, she regularly meets with members of Congress, the administration, and regulatory agencies to advocate the Chamber’s retirement policy.

She has over 20 years of experience in employee benefits law, in both policy and practice. Her experience includes working as a director in the Global Human Resources group of PricewaterhouseCoopers and serving as the fund director and counsel for the National IAM Benefit Trust Fund. Before that, she established the government relations unit of Buck Consultants, working on employee benefit legislative and regulatory matters on behalf of Buck and its clients. She also was a partner at McDermott, Will & Emsey in the firm’s Employee Benefits Department.

Chantel has a B.A. in Spanish and Russian studies from Randolph-Macon Woman’s College and a J.D. from Northeastern University School of Law. She is admitted to the bars in the District of Columbia, Virginia, and Georgia.

Chantel is an adjunct professor at Georgetown University School of Law in the Tax LLM program.

Register Now

Session Contact: Sue Andres, Email: capitalchapteriscebs@gmail.com