

Tim Black, CIMA®

Regional Director, Taft-Hartley Solutions
SEI Investments
Waukesha, Wisconsin

Tim Black serves as a Director in SEI's Institutional Group, responsible for building new OCIO partnerships with union and government clients in the U.S.

Prior to joining SEI, Tim was a Senior Consultant at Fiducient Advisors, providing counsel and guidance on portfolio design, asset allocation, manager selection, investment policy statements, and overall performance monitoring. Prior to that, he spent over a decade at PNC Financial. During his time at PNC, he served as Senior Vice President and Senior Business Development Advisor in the Taft-Hartley division.

Tim earned his bachelor's degree at Carroll University and a Certified Investment Management Analyst (CIMA) designation. He has been in the investment industry since 2002.