

John Drakulich

President, PBM Business Group
ProCare Rx
Gainesville, Georgia

John Drakulich is president of the PBM Business Group at ProCare Rx and a visionary leader in the industry with demonstrated ability to drive growth and innovation. He has experience across key markets, including commercial employers, payers, government, hospitals, health systems, labor groups, and other carve-out programs. John previously held various executive sales and operations roles with RxSense, Optum Rx, Prime Therapeutics, Anthem, PCS Advance, and ValueRx. With over three decades in the PBM space, John understands the complexity and opportunity within the industry and has a deep understanding of pharmacy financials and the underwriting of pharmacy products and services. John graduated from the University of Colorado – Denver with a BS in Business Management, Marketing, and Related Support Services.