

Elizabeth Sennett, CEBS

Managing Director, Team Lead, Private Equity Practice
Brown & Brown
Burlingame, California

Ms. Sennett is managing director, team lead, private equity practice at Brown & Brown. She has over 20 years of experience in health and welfare benefits with an emphasis in the private equity industry. Ms. Sennett helps clients to create long-term benefits strategies and specializes in the needs of private equity firms and their portfolio companies. She also has a laser focus on compliance for her clients' health and welfare plans. Ms. Sennett holds an M.B.A. degree from the Haas School of Business, University of California at Berkeley. She also holds a B.A. degree with a business specialization from the University of California, Los Angeles. She holds her Certified Employee Benefit Specialist (CEBS) certification and is CEBS Compliant. She has served on the Society's Professional Development and Symposium Education committees and is a past president of its Northern California chapter.