

Oyebole (Bode) Taiwo, M.D., M.P.H.

Senior Vice President and Chief Medical Officer
3M
St. Paul, Minnesota

Dr. Taiwo is senior vice president and chief medical officer of 3M, where he is responsible for the development of 3M's global health strategy as well as the leadership and management of the medical organization. Prior to joining 3M, Dr. Taiwo was on faculty at Yale University School of Medicine in New Haven, Connecticut for 17 years. Dr. Taiwo received his medical degree from University of Lagos, Nigeria and his master's degree in public health from the University of Alabama in Birmingham. He completed residency training in internal medicine at Meharry Medical College in Nashville, Tennessee and fellowship training in occupational and environmental medicine at Yale University School of Medicine. Dr. Taiwo's areas of professional interest include understanding the factors associated with health disparities in the workforce and conducting health impact assessments of industrial projects and policies on the population.